Hart W. Wood
American Oversight
1030 15th Street NW, B255
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Hart W. Wood:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) request received in this office on October 19, 2018, regarding calendar entries for L. Francis Cissna, Kaitlin Vogt Stoddard and Robert Law. You specifically requested the following:

1. All calendars or calendar entries for any of the following individuals, including any calendars maintained on behalf of these individuals (e.g., by an administrative assistant): , -
 - L Francis Cissna
 - Kaitlin Vogt Stoddard
 - Anyone who has served as White House Liaison since January 20, 2017

For these individuals, American Oversight requests that the calendars be produced in a format that includes all invitees, any notes, and all attachments.

2. All calendars or calendar entries for the following individuals, including any calendars maintained on his behalf (e.g., by an administrative assistant):
 - Robert Law

For this individual, American Oversight does not need the records to be produced in a format that includes all invitees, notes, and attachments. Rather, American Oversight seeks only a format that includes dates, times, and meeting titles, such as the "Daily" format used by Microsoft Outlook or a similar format

Please provide all responsive records from the date each custodian joined USCIS through the date the search is conducted

Please do not limit your search to Outlook calendars. We request the production of any document-paper or electronic, whether on government-issued or personal devices-used to track or coordinate how these individuals allocate their time on agency business

This is the third rolling release of documents being produced. We have completed the review 1500 pages of documents and have identified 1477 pages that are responsive to your request. We have referred 487 pages in their entirety as follows: 372 pages to Department of Homeland Security; 12 pages to Department of Justice; 2 pages to the Department of State; 4 pages to the U.S. Coast Guard; 97 pages to the White House. We have reviewed and have determined to release all information except those portions that are exempt pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(2), (b)(5), (b)(6), and (b)(7)(E) of the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(2) as applied by USCIS protects predominantly information related to agency personnel rules and practices.

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing pre-decisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

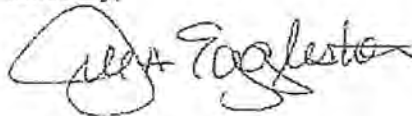

Exemption (b)(6) permits the government to withhold all information about individuals in personnel, medical and similar files where the disclosure of such information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld may consist of birth certificates, naturalization certificates, drivers' licenses, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, or various other documents and/or information belonging to a third party that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(E) provides protection for records or information for law enforcement purposes which would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld could consist of law enforcement systems checks, manuals, checkpoint locations, surveillance techniques, and various other documents.

In accordance with Department of Homeland Security Regulations (6 C.F.R. § 5.4(a)), USCIS uses a "cut-off" date to delineate the scope of a FOIA request by treating records created after that date as not responsive to that request. Therefore, in determining which records are responsive to your request, we included only records in the possession of this agency as of November 2, 2018, the date we began the search for records.

I note that this matter is in litigation. If you have any questions on any of the matters involved in this litigation, please contact Assistant U.S. Attorney Sean Tepe at (202) 252-2533 or sean.tepe@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

Jill A. Eggleston
Director, FOIA Operations

- I-90 and G-28 on uscis.gov: To-date, approximately 58,545 I-90's cases have been e-filed, 8,219 I-90 cases have been drafted, and 3 G-28's have been drafted via uscis.gov.
- Linking of G-28 to I-90 and N-400:
 - Linking to I-90 was launched on September 12, 2017. To-date, 89 drafts have been created and 130 cases have been operationalized.
 - Linking to N-400 launched on September 22, 2017. To-date, no drafts have been created and 1 case has been operationalized.
- N-400 Fee Issue: 56 applicants paid the wrong fee ($680) that was displayed on external N-400 during September 25 – 27.
 - ELIS and myUSCIS teams developed a solution that calculates fees using the logic that exist in the ELIS payment service. - Future ELIS/myUSCIS Integration: ELIS and myUSCIS teams developing plan to retire legacy ELIS Homepage, and turn over I-131A and Immigrant Fee Payment service to myUSCIS team.

Services

- ELIS I-90 Streamlined Processing (SP):
 - Field Testing: TDD continues working with the Potomac Service Center (PSC) to roll-out ELIS I-90 SP functionality. To-date, 2,164 cases have been tested during three separate field tests.

ELIS REMEDIATION (1 OF 2)

PIVOT N-400 BACK TO ELIS

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

- Since January 2017, OIT has worked diligently to resolve system issues, deliver required N-400 functionality, and enhance existing ELIS features.
- OIT has completed remediation of issues in the following areas, to include the four findings identified in the DHS OIG Management Alert issued on January 19, 2017.

ISSUE	ACTIONS	STATUS
Deficiencies in Background and Security Checks for Applicants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ All known deficiencies in background and security checks have been fixed ▪ Checks performed through ELIS utilize a multi-layered validation process for TECS inquiries
Inconsistent Case Status Update and Closeout of Cases in ELIS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ All known issues have been resolved, and a process has been set up to deal with any unexpected issues in the future
Certificate Printing Issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ To address this risk, USCIS simplified the certificate printing process to enable printing directly from ELIS. The field reports the new process is working well—averaging approximately two seconds per certificate
Availability of a Contingency Plan for Sustained Processing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Documents and forms submitted as part of the N-400 application are stored independent of ELIS, and can be recalled by the officer, regardless of ELIS' availability
Availability of a Scanning Utility for the Field	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ USCIS has implemented the ability to scan documents directly to a case in ELIS, which automatically assigns appropriate tags and filenames to scanned documents, and ensures that they are uploaded to the correct section of the applicant's case file.

35

N-400 cases were “field tested” through both paper and e-file intake channels:

- USCIS Lockbox: During the week of June 6, 2017, there were approximately 11,517 cases ingested into ELIS.
- MyUSCIS E-filing: During the week of August 21, 2017, there were approximately 966 cases e-filed (and 2,591 draft cases created)

ELIS Application for Naturalization (Form N-400) Process

Overview

The purpose of this paper is to provide an understanding of how U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) ingests and digitizes N-400 paper applications into its Electronic Immigration System (ELIS) workflow process. The intent is to outline the many steps USCIS takes to ensure that the USCIS ELIS record used to adjudicate naturalization cases is complete, accurate, and retains integrity throughout its processing. This process also shows the extent to which the ELIS record is an accurate and complete record of the adjudicative actions associated with the applicant, and how the applicant is tied to that record.

Lockbox

The Lockbox is a contract entity that supports USCIS through an interagency agreement with the Department of Treasury. In general, the Lockbox receives paper applications, petitions, and requests and required fee payments from the public by mail. The Lockbox processes payments on USCIS' behalf, prepares applications, petitions, and requests for shipment to USCIS, and when applicable, digitizes documents for ingestion into the USCIS ELIS system. The following is a description of the intake and digitization process for N-400 applications ingested into ELIS.

- Upon receipt by the Lockbox, incoming mail is identified and sorted into form types by the P.O. Box number annotated on the mailing envelope sent by the applicant. After the initial sort, applications are inspected to ensure that they are indeed sorted into the correct flow for N-400 applications.
- Procedures for reviewing and preparing applications and support documents:
 1. Verify payment information
 2. Remove all sticky notes (post-it note type stickers), staples, and paper clips from the application, petition, or request forms, as well as all supporting documents.
 3. Any sticky notes removed are prepared for scanning.
 4. Review sides, top, and bottom of all documents thoroughly to ensure their integrity.
 5. Remove all instruction pages for completing the application, petition, or request(s) and prepare for scanning.
 6. Copy the envelope used to mail the application in preparation for scanning.
 7. All submitted documentation is sorted and placed in an order specific to the N-400. Note, the order varies based on application type.
- Records are then digitized by the Lockbox contractors.
 - The Lockbox scans the N-400 application and supporting documentation.
 - Application data is run through the OnBase system where optical character recognition (OCR) is performed. OCR is used on data fields that have high confidence. All OCR data then goes to data entry for verification. Any data not automatically picked up by the OCR process is manually entered at this time. Critical data elements (e.g., name, date of birth, A number, etc.) go to a second data entry person, where they are verified or typed-in a second time just to ensure the data sent to ELIS is accurate.

- Any hard to replace supporting documents (e.g., an original birth certificate) are scanned and then mailed back to the applicant.
 - Any irrelevant items that cannot be scanned (e.g., photo albums and odd sized papers) are removed from the record and returned to the applicant. These are not included as part of the scanned filing uploaded into ELIS.
- NOTE: Applications that were scanned as part of the initial USCIS ELIS deployment did not contain scanned images from sealed envelopes. Those scanned once the official pivot decision is made will include a complete scanned copy of records submitted in sealed envelopes.
 - Applications are re-assembled after scanning. A sample of scanned applications move to the quality assurance/quality check (QA/QC) process, in which a USCIS employee verifies that:
 - All content able to be scanned in the application package is electronically retrievable;
 - All pages are present and visible; and
 - Page orientation is correct.
 - Application, petition, and request packets that will be adjudicated in USCIS ELIS and meet QA standards are packed for shipment to the Harrisonburg File Storage Facility.
 - USCIS systems are queried with biographic information from the N-400 application and A-Numbers are validated (or assigned if needed) by the Lockbox.

National Benefits Center (NBC) and Service Centers Processing Workflow

Applications that will be adjudicated by Field Offices are pre-processed by the NBC. This consists of reviewing the scanned ELIS application and evidence for completeness; initiating background checks (TECS and FBI name checks); conducting initial name harvesting; resolving background check issues; reviewing the applicant's alien file (A-file); and, if needed, sending Requests For Evidence (RFEs).

Upon receipt of the file/data, the NBC and Service Centers validate A-file numbers.

The National Appointment Scheduling System (NASS) automatically schedules biometric collection appointments for applicants with pending applications. Appointments will be conducted at USCIS Application Support Centers (ASCs) located across the country.

The ELIS applications are added to the National File Tracking System (NFTS).

- Corresponding A-files are requested from the National Records Center or the Federal Records Center, so that the A-File can be reviewed with its corresponding USCIS ELIS filing by the Immigration Services Officer (ISO).
- Upon receipt of the A-file, the office processing the N-400 must be certain that the A-file is acknowledged in Central Index System (CIS), NFTS, CLAIMS 4, and/or USCIS ELIS.
- The CLAIMS 4/USCIS ELIS/NFTS interface alerts the ISO that the A-file has been received. If the A-file corresponding to the pending Form N-400 has not been requested by the interviewing office before the completion of pre-processing, the NBC and Service Centers must obtain the A-file or ensure that a requisite A-file transfer request has been completed prior to shipping a case for interview.
- The location of the application is then updated in NFTS to the Contract Performance Analysis Unit (CPAU) Analyst.

The NBC does a final review of the application prior to shipping for further processing.

ASC

As part of the immigration benefits adjudication process, USCIS conducts background checks on applicants who seek to naturalize. USCIS schedules the applicant by mail to have biometrics captured at a specific ASC. Applicants receive initial ASC appointment notifications from the NBC via USPS. Subsequent notices may be sent from local USCIS offices.

Applicants may receive more than one appointment notice when scheduled for biometrics capture. For example, USCIS may schedule a Lawful Permanent Resident with both a pending N-400 application and an Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card (Form I-90) for a single appointment, as each appointment notice may include up to two form types. This is more efficient and saves valuable resources for the agency. It is noted, however, that an applicant may need to be processed more than once depending on the number of notices and form types listed; the appointment code indicates which biometrics will be captured.

Applicants are processed as follows:

- Applicants arrive at the ASC and present:
 - ASC Appointment Notice
 - Government-issued photo identification

- A guard/receptionist examines the hands of applicants for open wounds or cuts, distributes the Applicant Information Worksheet (AIW), and checks applicants' identification documents.
- Applicants' identity is validated by comparing the government-issued photo identification to the applicant. If the applicant's identity is called into question, the applicant is referred to the ASC ISO for review of the documents and systems checks.
- If there are no issues with an applicant's hands or identification documents, an applicant is allowed to proceed inside the ASC to fill out the AIW.
- Applicants must provide basic demographic information on the AIW, and must list any aliases that they have used in the past. Upon completion, the AIW is used by the Biometrics Technician (BT) to augment required data needed for the demographics portion of an applicant's record.
- ASCs collect biometrics for applicants as indicated on appointment notices. The only exception is in the case of severe physical limitations, such as a missing limb, requiring a fingerprint waiver to be filed, following the same procedures as would be for any other type of applicant.
- Currently, the biometric collection requirements for photographs, rolled and press prints of all fingers, and signature vary based on the applicant's age; however, photographs may never be waived.
- At the time of biometric capture, the applicant must sign the signature pad making the following attestation:

“By signing here, I declare under penalty of perjury that I have reviewed and understand my application, petition, or request N-400, as identified by the receipt number displayed on the screen above, and all supporting documents, application(s), petition(s), or request(s) filed with my application, petition, or request N-400, that I (or my attorney or accredited representative) filed with USCIS, and that all of the information in these materials is complete, true and correct.”

Once the biometrics collection is complete, the BT returns all original documents to the applicant, including the AIW, appointment notice, and identification documents.

Adjudication

In most instances all pre-processing is completed prior to the field office receiving the USCIS ELIS record for adjudication. However, if expedited, USCIS will place the pending N-400 in the local field office work queue. The local office is then responsible for reviewing and resolving all pre-processing checks that may remain prior to final adjudication.

Any background or fingerprint checks resulting in derogatory information, such as a record of a criminal offense, must receive a secondary review and require review from a supervisor or a background review group (such as the Fraud Detection and National Security Directorate (FDNS)).

Each case is tagged with the field office to which it is assigned. Each field office can only see those cases that are assigned to that particular field office.

Reviewing an applicant's A-file and background check results is critical to determining eligibility. USCIS must completely review the applicant's file before any adjudicative action:

- FBI Name Check
 - Data is submitted to the FBI's system via electronic interfaces.
- FBI Fingerprint Check
 - FBI fingerprints with derogatory results require additional processing to ensure the applicant is eligible for the requested benefit.
- File Transfers
 - Reviewing the A-file is critical to determining eligibility for naturalization.
 - Officers must also review the applicant's A-file in connection with a naturalization application in ELIS.
- File Review
 - During the file review, officers check to ensure that proper documentation and evidence are available to support the adjudication of the application.
- Scan any additional records and evidence that have been received in support of the adjudication post filing. Newly submitted records and evidence must be scanned into ELIS using the USCIS ELIS Scanning Utility tool. ISOs must verify that the scan was uploaded and meets scanning standards.
- Request any additional records and evidence.
 - Newly submitted records and evidence must be scanned into ELIS using the USCIS ELIS Scanning Utility tool. ISOs must verify that the scan was uploaded and meets scanning standards.
- Interview
 - Conduct interview using Consolidated Handbook of Adjudication Procedures (CHAP) standards.
 - When the applicant arrives at the district / field office for interview, the applicant's fingerprint is captured and used to verify his or her identity via the Identity Verification Tool (IVT). IVT uses fingerprints to confirm the applicant is the same person who appeared at the ASC and had background checks conducted for the N-400 application.

- ISOs request the applicant's government issued identification, such as a Legal Permanent Resident card (green card), driver license , or Passport at the time of the interview.
- During the interview, an ISO confirms with the applicant that he or she has in fact applied for naturalization and explains that the interview is specifically related to the applicant's Application for Naturalization.
- ISOs may verify and provide an applicant the opportunity to review that the submitted and scanned documents (application, birth certificates, death certificates, divorce decrees, etc.) are complete and accurate.¹ In those cases, the applicant has the opportunity to concur or dispute the completeness or lack thereof of the N-400, Application for Naturalization and submitted documentation. Any discrepancies must be documented in USCIS ELIS.
- Applicant signs the district / field office electronic tablet to attest to the completeness of their application.
 - "I swear (affirm) and certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that I know that the contents of this N-400, Application for Naturalization, subscribed by me, including corrections number 1 through ____, are complete, true, and correct. The evidence submitted by me on numbered pages 1 through ____ are complete, true, and correct."
- Complete adjudication in ELIS
 - The ISO finalizes the adjudication. Approved applications require the creation of the Naturalization certificate and scheduling the applicant for an oath ceremony. Denied applications require the creation of a denial letter.

Post Adjudication

Post adjudication, the USCIS ELIS record is retained until the applicable retention period is met. The data is then transmitted to the National Archives.

¹ This is not a requirement and is currently up to ISO discretion. Procedures can be changed to make this a required step but that may add to processing times.

Good morning, I am declining the meeting invitation as I was mistakenly included in this invitation, which relates to Social Media use by the Director's office as a communications tool. Just sending this message to let you know that if the meeting is rescheduled, I should not be included in the rescheduled meeting.

Please note that I may be involved in front office briefings related to the agency's use of social media as a screening/vetting tool, but those are a different set of meetings and are yet to be scheduled.

Thank-you,

Cristina Hamilton
